

Message from Abu Abdallah Al-Hassan Bin Mahmoud, Amir
(Commander) of the Ansar al-Sunnah Army in Iraq.

Dated: 6/25/2004

"... Oh, you the believers wherever you are... The Muslims are experiencing today big blessings that Allah bestowed on them... the blessing of combat and jihad for the sake of Allah [against] the grandsons of monkeys and pigs [who] mobilized their armies and came for the purpose of eradicating Islam and the faithful..."

"Oh, you the fighters... be aware that there is no honor or true life except in the jihad... [it] revives the nation and reinforces the Muslims and this is the path of the true servants of Allah... the lands of Iraq have become, by the will of Allah (glory be to he) a holocaust that have burned the Crusader armies and their stooges from among the apostate regimes... they thought it was easy and soft, but... [the news of] torture and disgrace raised the heads of the Muslims and reinforced Islam and its faithful."

"...Allah has bestowed on us [the lessons] of the torture used by the enemies of Allah and we will not forget their dictated lessons, [so we] have carried out the Tawheed [mission] with the bombing of [several police stations]... and then the explosion of a car bomb in southern Baghdad on June 24, 2004, and this is, by Allah, only a drop in the ocean and we will continue this path as long as our hearts continue to beat."

"And finally, We say to you O American stooges, [you have] sold your religion to the grandsons of monkeys and pigs, [so] repent to your creator and abandon your course... you have disbelieved in Allah and fought the religion [Islam]... [America] will not save you from Allah."
