Communiqué from the Ansar al-Sunnah Army in Iraq

September 13, 2004

"In the Name of Allah, Most Gracious Most Merciful:"

"…It is said, 'fight them until there is no more disorder and Allah's religion is supreme.'" (Surah Al-Baqarah, Verse 193)

"To our fighting brothers: the apostate Kurdish factions, and especially the protégé faction of the Jews (Masoud al-Barzani) and the apostate (Jalal al-Talabani)… give aid and support to their masters among the Jews and Christians against Islam and the Muslims. Intending to eliminate them, a detachment of Allah's brave soldiers carried out an infiltration from the city of Mosul into the city of al-Dahouk in northern Iraq, as part of an attempt to kill one of the tyrant leaders—the apostate governor of al-Dahouk. They carried out the operation, which led to the killing of many of his guards and supporters, but the governor of Dahouk was saved from the fire of the mujahideen. But, Allah willing, he will not survive his earthly disgraces in the hereafter if he does not repent and return to his Lord."

"And we now declare our responsibility for this operation... and the honor goes to Allah, his messenger, and to the believers."
