Biography of Badr Mansour al-Subaiee, Al-Qaida militant recently killed by Saudi Security Forces

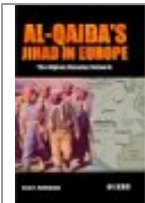

January 12, 2005

“The Biography of the hero Badr Mansour al-Subaiee who martyred himself in Riyadh and the honor that his parents witnessed during his burial.”

“In the name of Allah, Most Gracious, Most Merciful:”

“This is the story of a man who had declared jihad for the sake of Allah and had fought several battles in many countries. He was injured many times but his injuries did not stop his jihad for the sake of Allah. He fought in Bosnia with his brothers, then later in Afghanistan, and finally in the Arabian Peninsula. He had also been imprisoned and tortured [by the Saudi government]. He was held captive in the intelligence prison in Jeddah for two years and then transferred to the Al-Haa'ir prison, where he was tortured in for an entire year. Finally, he was transferred from there to the underground prison in Ad-Damaam. In total, he was held prisoner for four years during which he suffered terribly—however, all his suffering did not stop him from continuing in his jihad. His passport was revoked [by the Saudi government], but he still managed to travel to Afghanistan, despite being under surveillance and officially forbidden from traveling. After he was discharged from prison, he went to his parents house and stayed there for about two months. Afterwards, his soul grew eager for martyrdom, so he left to go find it. Then, he disappeared for three years and finally we have heard the news of his martyrdom.”

“The [Saudi] Interior Ministry published his photo while his head was leaning towards the left. They did so in order to conceal his features and also his right hand—which looked as if it had been cut off. However, their scam was revealed when we saw him—in the name of the Kaaba—smiling while raising his right hand with its index finger pointing straight [to heaven]. I swear by Allah that this is the way he looked when we saw him, along with trails of tears on his right shoulder... May Allah give him Mercy and put him in heaven.”
