“Our beloved commander [Bin Laden]: rejoice, for we are hurting our enemies just like they are hurting us. We are fighting and wearing them out according to a carefully devised plan, and we ask Allah to help us and guide us. As for their plans, they have failed one after the next... You may have heard about the failure of the deceptive reconciliation plan that Bouteflika and his generals had gambled on. Only Allah knows how many men they recruited and how much money they raised for that plan, and only out of their desire to stop the jihad. Today their plan is nothing more than dust blowing in the wind or a bedtime story. The failure of this plan is the topic of public and private discussion. This is all a consequence of the plan’s admittedly poor results, as they have described it themselves, and as corroborated by reports and numerous polls.”

“As for their soldiers, the mujahideen give them a dose of suffering on a regular basis. The bombs and bullets of the mujahideen kill scores of them every month. Praise be to Allah, the only thing they have left is the misinformation that they spread in their media. They make up false stories about killing dozens of mujahideen each month while concealing their numerous casualties. Praise be to Allah, each day, more loyal young men rally around the mujahideen... You see them joining the mujahideen after realizing that their rulers are traitors who are conspiring with the crusader alliance in the war against Islam. They have witnessed the apostate scandals with their own eyes. Their disgraceful acts exude a foul odor every time and include slandering the believers, officially encouraging conversion to Christianity, and incessant plundering of our nation’s resources such as gas and petroleum while sharing the stolen booty with their crusader masters.”

“As for the policy of impoverishment and starvation, the ever-worsening corruption cases, and the financial scandals that come in rain-like torrents and appear in the newspapers every day... these all clearly prove that the traitors are totally bankrupt... They are compelling enough reasons alone for any believer who is proud of his religion and his nation to disassociate himself from them. As for the evil alliance that is led by America militarily, by France culturally, and backed by NATO—the joining of Algeria [alongside it] and the declaration of allegiance to you has become a lump in their throats and heartache in their chests. They started recruiting the desert countries, while supplying them with funding and logistical support and training them to wage war against us. This has only made us have more faith in the promise of Allah... and totally confident in the righteousness of the path that we have chosen... Our beloved Shaykh and Commander, this is just a brief snapshot that I wanted to provide you with so that you rest assured regarding the condition of your loyal soldiers who lie in wait in this Islamic land. Rejoice and relax! We are eagerly awaiting your instructions and orders regarding the next phase. O’ Shaykh! In the name of Allah, bringing joy to your heart and the hearts of our weak brothers all over the world means more to us than the pleasures this world has to offer.”

“As for the second message I would like to relay through my speech—a message for Bouteflika, his accomplices and his soldiers. You have clearly chosen your camp and we have clearly chosen ours. You have made yourself an ally of this nation’s enemies. You have actively joined the war against Islam led by America, the leader of the infidels. You have made friends with the enemy of yesterday, France. You have opened a wide door for the infidel companies to plunder our gas and oil. Their people enjoy them while, despite the imaginary revenues, our nation sinks in a swamp of poverty, unemployment, and doom. With respect to Palestine, you sold it out when you shook the hand of the criminal Barak, honored that clown [Enrico] Macias [a Jewish singer from Algeria], and sent secret delegations to establish friendly ties and start normalizing relations [with Israel]. As for Iraq, you have recognized the occupation and arrested young men who seek to join their brothers and fight the non-Arab crusaders. With regards to the shariah, you have trampled over it and desecrated it. You fight those who wish to implement the Shariah. You make efforts to spread pornography and obscenity, drug the young men, nationalize the mosques, and shut the mouths of the loyal believers. Despite these disasters and obvious displays of disbelief, you then drone on about the reconciliation deception in an attempt to trick the nation. You fraudulently disguise yourself in the clothes of the righteous.”

“If you are indeed sincere: stand in the camp of Islam and not in the camp of Bush; disavow your loyalty to the Jewish and Christian infidels; rule in accordance with Allah’s Shariah... Stop your war against Allah, Mohammed, and the mujahideen. Only then will your actions coincide with your words. Only then will your claims gain validity through your actions. However, if you refuse to do so, we have a word of advice for you: your masters, the crusaders, have been bitterly defeated in both Afghanistan and Iraq. They are now in the process of reexamining and reconsidering their steps and they are preparing to withdraw their armies. Sooner or later they will turn their back on their agents. The history of the agents, and past experiences of traitors, all prove that all those who betray their nation and stand in the camp of our enemies will eventually regret it and end up humiliated and disgraced in this worldly life. As for the afterlife, their fate will be even more terrible and bitter...

“Your generals should know that we are determined to die. We love death just as much as they love their sweet and merry life. Allah knows that we do not fight for the worldly life, nor do we fight because we love killing and bloodshed as those who are biased repeatedly say, and as you and all our critics probably describe us. The only reason we have arisen is to support Allah’s religion of Islam that you have abandoned, and to defend the nation’s sanctuaries that you and the enemies have joined forces in desecrating. We wage our jihad in order to fulfill a mandatory individual duty that we have been duty-bound to fulfill ever since the fall of Andalusia, the theft of Palestine, and the creation of invader-made borders dividing our land.”

“In the name of Allah, we will not cease taking part in this essential war until the last grain of Islamic soil is liberated or until our deaths—whichever comes first. Thanks to Allah’s strength and power, we have worn you down for 14 years without any external support. How could it be otherwise when, most recently, Allah has granted us stores of weapons and ammunition? Your intelligence knows very well about the scale and scope of this grant. How could it be otherwise when the young men of Mohammed, peace and blessings upon him, have already begun to wake up from their sleep, recovering from their failures, and passionately desiring to hold a weapon as they flock to the mountains from places inside the country and from abroad. They flock [to us] as immigrants and supporters, united in their love of jihad, their desire for martyrdom, and their wish to help make monotheistic Islam victorious.”

The strangest thing is listening to your crazy Interior Minister who has become the laughing stock of the media and a living example of someone who makes contradictory statements when citing statistics. He has unique and strange interpretations of the definitions of strength and weakness. Whenever the mujahideen deal him a great blow, he interprets it as great proof of their weakness... We challenge him to, first of all, report the true number of [mujahideen], and he knows the real number of men in their ranks very well! Secondly, we challenge him to report the actual number of young men who have rushed forward to join the battle just in the past few months alone, so that his fraudulence and misinformation will be revealed and so that people will know whether they are dealing with mere remnants of terrorist strongholds—as he and others like him falsely claim—or, if they are dealing with the offspring that have emerged and blossomed from the blessed blood of the martyrs—a whole new generation that has rejected a life of humiliation and has dedicated itself to Allah in order to raise the banner of Islam together with us yet again.”

“Thirdly, we challenge him to reveal the actual number of men his forces have lost... and who have been killed by the mujahideen, blown up by our explosive devices, struck by our bullets, or torn to shreds in the minefields. You should know Bouteflika—and so should your Generals, and your masters, the crusaders who back you—that we are coming with the help of Allah. We are coming, despite our gaping wounds... despite the fact that we were expelled... despite the dead we bury each day... despite the moans of the bereaved parents and the tears of the orphans. We are coming because that is what Allah has decided. We are coming in order to bring good news to our Prophet, peace and blessings upon him, by showing him that a group of mujahideen still persist who wage jihad in the cause of Allah until the day of judgment.”

“As for my third message: a message to Algerian Muslims... their elders and young men... their clerics and believers... those of Amazigh and Arab background. O’ grandchildren of Tarek Bin Ziyad and Uqba Bin Nafi! O’ sons of Yusuf Bin Tashfin! Our forefathers spilled their blood so that we would be able to live under Islamic rule and breathe the scent of glory and respect. Not so long ago, our fathers and grandfathers fought crusader France and kicked her out of Algeria defeated and humiliated. They sacrificed all that they had so that we would enjoy freedom in accordance with Islamic teachings. Before we knew it, victory was stolen from us. The weak descendants of France gained strength and destroyed everything. Yesterday, France exited through the front door and, today, it has come back and entered through the window. America has also entered through the front
