Communiqué from the Iraqi Islamic Resistance Front (JAAMI)

January 10, 2007

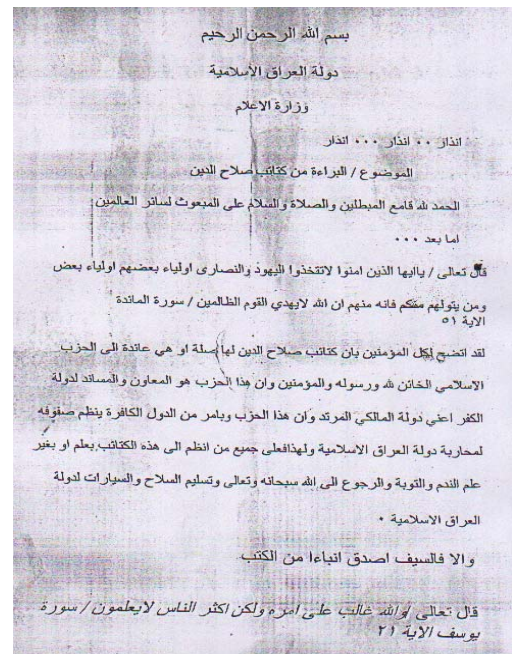

“An important and crucial political statement regarding what has been published about our brigades in Al-Amiriyah.”

“In the name of Allah, Most Gracious, Most Merciful... Yesterday, a statement was published under the name of the Media Wing of the Islamic State of Iraq titled, ‘Disowning the Salahudeen Brigades.’ That statement is still being spread in various places in the neighborhood of Al-Amiriyah in western Baghdad. In the statement, the Islamic State of Iraq demanded the Salahudeen Brigades to ‘beg for forgiveness’ and to submit all their weapons and vehicles to the Islamic State of Iraq under the allegation that the [Salahudeen] Brigades are connected to the Iraqi Islamic Party (which is participating in the political system). They emphasized the importance of that matter regarding its impact on the jihadi front. Therefore, we decided to clarify the following:”

“1.) Our Military Wing, represented by the Salahudeen Brigades, have been opposed to the so-called ‘political agenda’ since its establishment. The soldiers of our brigades believe that there is no place for political collaboration until the occupation is over. Any parties working together on that political effort will fail to achieve their jihadi goals. Also, we have published several statements regarding the participation of our brigades in that effort.”

“2.) The official platform of the brigades regarding what is happening on the Iraqi front is decided only by the Political Bureau and by no one else.”

“3.) We caution everyone about ever-present efforts to weaken the unity of the jihad, especially by the Iranian scum who are attempting to deceive the people about the ineffectiveness of the jihadi project through the lying media.”

“...It is now obvious to the believers that the Salahudeen Brigades are connected or originate from the [Iraqi] Islamic Party, which has betrayed Allah, his Prophet, and the believers. That same Islamic Party is an ally and supporter of the... apostate government of al-Maliki who is fighting the Islamic State of Iraq under the orders of the infidel countries. Therefore, anyone who has joined these brigades either knowingly and unknowingly should ask for forgiveness, return to the path of Allah, and turn over their weapon and vehicles to the Islamic State of Iraq...”

“4.) We warn our brothers in the rest of the Jihadi brigades to be careful from the Iranian led media and from the media coming from different secular parties that were previously known in Iraq.”

“5.) We ask all of the jihadist brigades: the Islamic Army of Iraq (IAI), the Ansar Al-Sunnah organization, the Military Wing of the Islamic Resistance Movement known as the 1920 Revolution Brigades, the Mujahideen Army, the Al-Fatiheen Army, the Al-Rashideen Army, and the Jihad Factions of Iraq to recognize the events happening around them. We need to unite in order to defeat the American-[Iranian] agenda.”

“6.) We think that the statement [from the Islamic State of Iraq] about our brigades was forced upon them, and therefore we ask them to publish a clear and sincere statement about their position among the mujahideen.”

“7.) The Salahudeen Brigades have a prestigious history, with over 150 videotaped jihad operations, and a total of over 1500 jihad military operations detailed in over 80 military statements... We caution anyone who is trying to provoke us and we swear to retaliate against anyone who attempts to target us in their effort to end the battlefield of jihad in Iraq...”
