The attack was executed after conducting detailed surveillance and advance planning, and detonating a high explosive bomb targeting the convoy that was carrying at least 20 Russians protected by infidel security guards. “All of these attacks come as a firm response to the myth of ‘control over the security situation’ and the myth of the would-be ‘siege.’ Let it be known to all the apostates and their Jewish and Christian masters that the youth of the Islamic Maghreb will not compromise or abandon their weapons until the land of Islam is totally free of every pagan, infidel, and spy. We renew our call to our Muslim brothers to stay clear of the pagans and infidels, so they will not be hurt by mujahideen attacks.”
