

© 2006 Evan Kohlmann (<http://www.globalterroralert.com> – info@globalterroralert.com)

Communiqué from the Al-Hesbah Network

April 14, 2006

“Communiqué (6) from the Al-Hesbah network regarding the return of the Al-Hesbah network.”

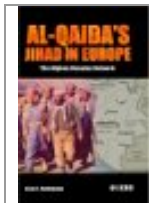

“In the Name of Allah, Most Gracious Most Merciful... the Al-Hesbah network has been put to many tests, and had to go through great difficulties and hardships—most notably, the arrest of its chief administrator, the righteous Shaykh Abu Musab [al-Mohtaseb], may Allah save him from his anguish and relieve him from his troubles. He was arrested not for a crime that he committed, but rather for spreading truth... The crusaders realized the importance of the threat posed by the Islamic media forums that uncovered their lies and stood in the way of their campaigns of misinformation and deception. It was these same Islamic forums that rivaled the major Western and Arab media networks, and gave voice to the mujahideen and defended their honor, making the Islamic media project reliable and innovative—despite the limited capabilities at its disposal.”

“As a result, the Islamic media forums—among them the Al-Hesbah network—were subject to attacks, and had to face a multitude of challenges and difficulties that the Al-Hesbah network—praise be to Allah for his blessing—managed to overcome for many months. Yet lately, these attacks have grown more and more intense and threatened the safety of the network. It became too difficult to continue and run the enterprise of righteousness, and so the network’s administrators decided to permanently shut it down on March 17, 2006. However, due to several recent developments, [Al-Hesbah]’s administrators decided to reopen the network, putting their faith in Allah and taking all the precautions they can, in order to reassume their media role...”

Al-Hesbah Network Administrators

April 14, 2006

Al-Qaida's Jihad in Europe: the Afghan-Bosnian Network

“For Bin Laden's involvement in the Bosnian conflicts, see Evan F. Kohlmann, Al-Qaida's Jihad in Europe.” - U.S. 9/11 Commission Final Report (July 2004)

NOW ON SALE IN EUROPE AND NORTH AMERICA