Communiqué from the Al-Rashideen Army in Iraq

June 10, 2006

"The Al-Rashideen Army offers its condolences."

"In the name of Allah, Most Gracious, Most Merciful:"

"…When we heard the news about your death, O' Abu Musab, we asked Allah to forgive you and we asked Allah to give us patience… While you were still alive, we used to consider you a walking martyr on earth and now that we have seen you dead, we have witnessed you as a free soul in paradise. You have fulfilled your desire and achieved martyrdom. The actions of the infidels, stooges, and hypocrites have made us extremely angry and so we shall take our revenge. It is the path of jihad and victory that will prevail and it will be either victory or martyrdom… May Allah have mercy on your soul."
