Communiqué from Al-Qaida's Committee in the Arabian Peninsula (Saudi Arabia)

June 26, 2006

"The Al-Bashaer Organization: Who are we, what do we want, and what is our connection to Al-Qaida's Committee in the Arabian Peninsula?"

"...Some of you have been speculating regarding the identity of Al-Bashaer and our connection to Al-Qaida's Committee in the Arabian Peninsula—therefore, we decided to answer these questions. Al-Bashaer is a media organization in Saudi that represents the mujahideen, especially those who are returning from Iraq and those who are wanted by the oppressors in Saudi Arabia. Anyone who demands al-Tawheed in Saudi has become sought by the authorities and the number of the young men who are escaping for the sake of their religion is increasing each day. We think that the future honor lists (wanted lists) will include many new names and we ask Allah to support his soldiers, to protect them, and to destroy his enemies. We seek to support the mujahideen and purify the land of Mohammed from its occupiers and apostates. We seek the establishment of a true Islamic state in the land of Prophet Mohammed. We desire that the ruling oppressors—who are controlled by the crusaders—are eliminated. They have always played an active role in the war against Islam and the mujahideen and they used to brag about it in front of their lords... We do not have any prior connections to Al-Qaida's Committee in the Arabian Peninsula and we ask Allah to make it possible for us to join them in our war against the crusaders and their supporters. We ask Allah to protect them and accept their martyrs..."
