“...All praise be to almighty Allah and prayers to his prophet Mohammed, his family, and supporters. This is your humble servant Mohammed bin Abdelrahman al-Suwailmi addressing the Islamic nation. The Saudi Interior Ministry has claimed that it killed me during the battles that took place at the city of Dammam. Yet, here I am, praise be to Allah, still alive and this is an indication of the weakness and impotency of this apostate government, even if it tries to portray itself as powerful and mighty for some naïve people. With this scandal, it has added another chapter in its endless series of shameful actions. Allah will reveal their lies using their own tongues... they said in their statement, ‘he met his just punishment.’ O’ the best punishment is [indeed] to be killed in the cause of Allah.”

“...I wish I could have been with my brothers so I could have also been killed in the cause of Allah. I swear to Allah that we left our homes and houses only to achieve victory for the religion of Allah and to achieve martyrdom in his cause. These fools are the bridges that connect us with our goals and help us transit from the life of agony and misery to a life in paradise—from a mortal existence to an immortal one. We ask generous Allah to grant his generosity upon us. This government claims that it achieved a remarkable victory during the Dammam clashes and it was able to deal perfectly with the situation using its resources and capabilities. But how can you refer to this as a victory after a two-day long siege involving this enormous number of troops, ammunition, and tanks only to fight three men who were carrying their personal Kalashnikov weapons, in addition to a small number of hand grenades and pipe bombs? Yet, the brothers were portrayed by the Interior Ministry statement and its media as having possessed rocket propelled grenades, explosives... etc. It was only through the support of Allah and his victory for his faithful mujahideen that allowed them to fight during all this time. Thousands of the tyrannical apostate’s troops were unable to breach the house of the mujahideen.”

“Despite the fact that the tyrannical soldiers brought all their weapons and used every trick they knew, they were unsuccessful in achieving their mission and Allah spread fear in their hearts... these courageous mujahideen did a wonderful job... those soldiers who bombarded the house refuse to use their power against the Jews or Christians. They did not even protect their country when it was in danger. To the contrary, they relied on perverted and prostituted foreign women to protect the holy places of the Muslims. They claim that their country is the country of al-Tawheed [monotheism] and that they are the protectors of Islamic law, but shame on them because they are really the soldiers of Satan and the executors of his laws. We know that these tyrants failed in trying to fool the people and make them follow their religion without the aid of their clerics. They were the ones who added the element of religion to themselves and created the idea that they were the [last vestige of the] former Islamic empire. They have lied in front of Allah and they shall be punished for their apostasy...”

“O’ clerics of the apostates, you are living on the blood of our martyred brothers in order to please your principle tyrant: the fool Abdullah bin Abdel Aziz. On the Day of Judgment, there are those of you who will wish that you did not receive any money from these apostate rulers. Enjoy your titles and prestige until the arrival of Allah. Allah has struck the mujahideen with catastrophes and tested them along this path. But instead of weakening them, he has made the righteousness of following their path clear for them. This is the path of prophets and righteous people. After all, what they encounter has made them even more eager for the promises of Allah to his believers...”

“We have witnessed how all our enemies have united together against this small fighting unit and only a small minority amongst the Muslims have stood alongside the mujahideen. The mujahideen are not deterred by the hatred of their enemies nor by disappointment with their brothers because this is the fate of this victorious sect. The mujahideen wish that the believers would resemble the description that Allah gave to them in [the Quran]... The mujahideen will never forget the group of the faithful who stood beside them and supported them. They will always remember that favor and will ask Allah to grant them forgiveness. Among those is my mujahid brother Abu Musab al-Zarqawi—may Allah protect him and use him to spread frustration amongst his enemies. [Abu Musab] did not hesitate even for a second to support and assist the mujahideen in the land of Prophet Mohammed. I ask Allah to grant victory upon him and his brothers in Mesopotamia and to grant honor and dignity upon Islam. Additionally, there are other faithful Muslims, such as our mujahideen brothers in Algeria and Afghanistan—may Allah grant victory upon them.”

“Before I end my speech, I send word to my parents and to the parents of every mujahid [fighting] in the cause of Allah: be patient and know that this life is a prison for the faithful and paradise for the infidels. Know also that your children are following the path of Prophet Mohammed, his family, and supporters. They have declared jihad in the cause of Allah and do not fear the accusations of anyone. Do not stand in their way... thank Allah for the guidance he has given your children. Beware not to stand alongside the tyrannical rulers who are against the mujahideen, because this will be the ultimate defeat.”

“O’ Allah, bring dignity to Islam and the Muslims and disgrace atheism and the infidels. O’ Allah, attack the enemies of our religion. O’ Allah, attack the Jews, the Christians, and the apostates. O’ Allah, grant victory upon your faithful mujahideen everywhere. Support them in Iraq, Afghanistan, Chechnya, Algeria, Egypt, Palestine, Kashmir, the Philippines, Indonesia, Syria, Nigeria, Eritrea, Saudi Arabia, and everywhere else, O’ almighty Allah. O’ Allah, unite their work for justice and bless them so that they may achieve your goals. Prayers to our prophet Mohammed and praise be to almighty Allah.”
